Cookout

Identified Potential Threats and Hazards	Description of Risk	Current Risk Control Measures Implemented at our School	Risk Rating (Refer to OHS Risk Management Procedure)			Treatments to be Implemented Measures to be taken by our school to eliminate or reduce impact of the risk	Revised Risk Rating After implementing Treatments
			Consequence	Likelihood	Risk Level		Consequence	Likelihood	Risk Level
Burns and scalds	Steam escapes from food parcel resulting in scald. Steam escapes from stock pot resulting in scald. Contact with hot stockpot resulting in burn. Handling unseen embers on sticks resulting in burn Food spill resulting in burn	Safety Instructions outlined prior to cooking sessions including • Strike matches away from themselves during fire lighting. • Don't touch the top or sides of stockpots or steamboats. • No running around fire sites • Children informed of first aid procedure if a burn occurs. • Students with long hair advised to tie it back & tuck it in • All Woorabinda staff have current Level 2 First Aid and carry a first aid kit. • Students under constant staff supervision • Demonstrate safe fire feeding procedures.	Moderate	Possible	Medium
Bites and Stings	A student is bitten by a snake or spider. A student is stung by an insect	• Cooking site is inspected prior to children exploring and searching for firewood. • All first aid kits are equipped with compression bandages. • All PS carry first aid kits and mobile phones • All identified anaphylactic students carry epi pens • Students are instructed to be aware when turning over logs and collecting firewood for any insects or reptiles.	Major	Rare	Medium
Weather		• Cook out cancelled in the event of lightning or days of Total Fire Ban.	Major	Unlikely	Medium

Cookout

Medical Issues	Smoke/pollens triggering breathing difficulties. Anaphylactic reaction due to ingestion of reactive foods.	• Children advised stand/sit with wind at their backs to reduce smoke inhalation • Students who suffer from asthma should carry Ventolin inhaler. • A first aid kit with a Ventolin inhaler is carried by all Woorabinda staff. • Students who are at risk of anaphylactic episodes will carry an epi-pen. • Woorabinda staff has been trained in administration of epi-pens. • Every effort is made by our kitchen staff to eliminate reactive foods from all bush cooking activities • Students are supervised at all times by staff during the Bush Cooking session	Severe	Rare	Medium
Environment	Overhanging tree branches. Dried undergrowth close to fires. Resident wildlife	• Ensure that all fires are extinguished at the end of each session. • Site is critically inspected before cooking event. • Walk around to notify resident reptiles of our arrival. • All staff are First Aid trained, carry First Aid kits and mobile phones	Major	Unlikely	Medium				